2019 VINTAGE

« The 2019 vintage is a fine one. The reds are beguiling and the whites have the hallmarks of an excellent vintage ».

“In sum, 2019 is absolutely a vintage that you want in your cellar, even if it’s in smallish quantities”.

“One aspect that really stands out about the 2019 whites is their texture and mouthfeel as the relatively abundant dry extract is literally palpable”.

“The wines from Domaine Chanson are probably my most preferred burgundies not the grandest by any means but perhaps the most expressive of each appellation.”

PREMIERS CRUS ET GRANDS CRUS

94/100

BEAUNE 1ER CRU CLOS DES FEVES

“Upright and floral aroma. Springy attack. Plenty of energy. Ripe fruit is lifted with minty and floral notes from the whole-bunch and a distinctive wet herbal twang. I rather like this, as it carries the finish with zingy vibrancy”.

FINE WINE

March 2021

CHARMES-CHAMBERTIN GRAND CRU

92/100

"Prominent wood and menthol nuances are present on the ripe aromas of dark berries, the sauvage and discreet floral whiffs. The exceptionally rich, suave and plush larger-scaled flavors possess a seductive texture that culminates in a relatively refined and moderately powerful finish. (...)"

Issue 82 2021

GEVREY CHAMBERTIN 1ER CRU LA PERRIERE

92/100

“A distinctly ripe nose reflects notes of poached plum, mocha, newly turned earth and forest floor with a background hint of leather. The sleek, intense and solidly voluminous middle weight flavors exude a more subtle minerality on the muscular but not rustic finish. (...)"

BEAUNE 1ER CRU CLOS DES MOUCHES (Red)

“More transparent garnet colour. A bit more muted on the nose than the Grèves. But with lots of dusty sweet fruit to get your teeth into. Broad and satisfying with (just) enough freshness. Quite long and well balanced with a bit of vitality”.

Jancis Robinson
JancisRobinson.com

December 2020

BEAUNE 1ER CRU TEURONS

92/100

“A higher-toned blend is comprised by notes of red and dark currant, anise, violet and a hint of wood. The slightly finer and more precise if less rich flavors possess a lovely sense of underlying tension that becomes more apparent on the balanced and sneaky long finale that is even firmer”.

Issue 82 2021

16+/20

PERNAND VERGELESSES 1ER CRU LES CARADEUX

“There is some of the coolness of the appellation on the nose of this wine and then some tightness and filigree nature of the fruit, which certainly isn't heavy. At the moment it's distinctly simple – light lemonade? But it should get there for you, so long as you don't object to the alcohol level”.

PREMIERS CRUS, GRANDS CRUS ET VILLAGES

BEAUNE 1ER CRU CLOS DES MOUCHES (WHITE)

"Rich and generous, but packed down and dense. This is not a fruity wine, but rather one showing savory, salty concentration. The "freshness" here lies in the sapidity, though there is touch of creaminess at the end of the punchy finish".

THE WORLD OF

March 2021

91/100

BEAUNE 1ER CRU CLOS DES MARCONNETS

"While this is not my favorite climate, it's an excellent showcase for whole-bunch. Marconnets, as should be expected, is full-bodied, luscious, and ripe. The smoothness on the approach and the looseness of texture could be dull on its own, but the herbal crunch and tannic bite freshen and energize the palate".

THE WORLD OF

CHASSAGNE MONTRACHET 1ER CRU LES CHENEVOTTES

"Chanson's 2 hectares here are located next to the Grand Cru Le Montrachet, which makes this a "must buy". It's one of the best expressions of Chardonnay grown on clay and limestone soil-supple yet firm, rich, and long".

THE SOMM JOURNAL

BEAUNE 1ER CRU GREVES

"Perhaps my preferred Premier Cru due to the supple, seductive richness derived from its sandy, gravelly soil. Opens early, but benefits from seven to ten years in bottle".

CHASSAGNE MONTRACHET

"The villages are amazing, sometimes superior to the Premiers Crus".

February 2021

CORTON VERGENNE GRAND CRU

92/100

"Discreet but discernible wood influence surrounds the ripe aromas of white orchard fruit compote anise and citrus confit. There is excellent volume to the opulent and exceptionally rich larger-scaled flavors that are not particularly refined, indeed they flirt with rusticity, though there is fine depth and length".

June 2021

92/100

"Once again there are suggestions of the exotic present in the form of passion fruit, viognier and dried orange peel on the white peach and citrus blossom aromas. The medium-bodied flavors are rich to the point of opulence with a suave mouthfeel that contrasts moderately with the bracingly dry but balanced finale. Worth a look".

June 2021

BEAUNE 1ER CRU GREVES

95/100

"This is delightful. A lucid wine with intensity and perfume. It shimmers. Red fruit laced with freshness. Elegant tannins. It slides across the palate on a silky-talcy texture".
