2011 VINTAGE

"An interesting and notably ripe nose of dark raspberry liqueur and violets leads to very rich, round and mouth coating flavours that possess fine volume for this level, all wrapped in a delicious yet entirely serious finish. A quality villages that should require 6 to 8 years of cellar time to be at its best. 2017+"

Score: 87-89/100 Burghound – Apr. 2013

"Violet aroma. Supple texture; fluid and pure. Fresh acidity and really quite lively. Crunchy red fruit. Pretty spot for a light village with pretty fruit and sufficient depth. From 2015."

Score: 15.5/20 Sarah Marsh - Dec. 2012

"Classic, pleasant fruit, ripe, finely grained. Harmonious wine with a nice and savoury aftertaste." Success La Revue du Vin de France – Jun. 2012

2010 VINTAGE

"Delicate and precise expression both in the nose and on the palate. A village whose elegance and freshness have to be pointed out."

Score: 17/20 Le Guide Bettane + Dessauve des vins de France - 2013

"This also offers notes of flowers and liqueur-like aromas where the sweetness is less pronounced. There is good volume and freshness to the mid-palate with a hint of minerality on the slightly sweet finish. Again, this isn't really what I'm looking for though there is nothing wrong with the style, at least not qualitatively speaking. 2014+"

Score 86-88/100 Burghound – Apr. 2012

"Relatively dark crimson. Really quite ripe and deep flavoured. Tastes as though more extracted than most. Pretty chewy finish."

Score 15.50/20 Jancis Robinson – Feb. 2012

"This is new for Chanson. The Parcel lies under the premier cru and comprises of old vines. It comes from one grower...Chanson will continue with this... Good density to the aroma, ripe and plumply fruity. Plenty of fruit on the attack. Good weight in the middle. The wine is fresh. The MLF is making the tannins seems a little tighter, but I like the energy here. This has some structure. (The soil has some clay in it. Jean-Pierre remarks;«always Volnay is described as feminine and light, but I like this style...» Good to very good. From 2014"

Score: 15.50-16 Sarah Marsh - Burgundy Briefing – Nov. 2011

2009 VINTAGE

"This is a firm wine with great fruit density, with a round generous and velvety texture. It has a touch of wood that needs to integrate with the flavour of red plum skin. The dark tannins create a wine that will age for several years."

Score: 90/100 Wine Enthusiast - Nov. 2012

«Very powerful and dense, a massive Volnay which will need time to integrate. However, it possesses beautiful texture. Very well made» La Revue du Vin de France – Jun. 2010

«A discreet touch of wood frames pretty red berry fruit with underbrush and iron-infused earth that give way to detail, firm and moderately austere flavours as the stems are very much in evidence on the acceptably long finish...»
Burghound.com – Apr. 2011

2005 VINTAGE

«A pretty and elegant nose combines both high and medium –tone red fruit aromas with bass notes of earth and underbrush that lead to medium weight flavours that are slightly tough.... I like the depth as there is solid complexity for a villages » Burghound.com - Oct. 2007
